

(May Peace & Blessings Of Allah(swt) Be On Us All) COUNTING BLESSINGS

16:18 وَإِنْ تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَةَ اللَّهِ لَا تُحْصُوهَا إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

اور اگر تم خدا کی نعمتوں کو شمار کرنا چاہو تو گن نہ سکو۔ بے شک خدا بخشنے والا مہربان ہے 16:18

If you would count up the favors of Allah(swt), you would never be able to count them surely for Allah(swt) is most forgiving, most merciful [Al-Quran Chapter 16 Verse 18] above verse challenges that humans cannot count the blessings of God on them whoever wants to deny, is welcomed to try start from sun and the moon skies and the earth winds and clouds and the rain and the seasons animals serving our needs and tasty fruits and vegetables from everything around to deep inside ourselves everything appears serving us we may keep them counting forever yet we will never be able to make a complete list and that is challenged above we can never count how many things are benefiting us or how many things we need for our survival the second part of the verse says the ONE who provided all this is most forgiving and most merciful HE does not take away HIS blessings on our faults, HE always gives us chances
