Personality Building

2:238 حَافِظُوا عَلَى الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالصَّلَاةِ الْوُسْطَىٰ وَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ قَانِتِينَ

Guard strictly your (habit of) prayers, especially the Middle Prayer;
and stand before Allah in a devout (frame of mind).

(Al-Quran Chapter 2 Verse 238)

Humans are the supreme creation of Allah(swt) and are very dear to Allah(swt).

Salah is an Order of Allah(swt) to Humans and every Order of Allah(swt) is for the own good of Humans.

Muslims offer Salah Five Times a Day purely to obey the order of Allah(swt)
and without digging out any other benefits

But without knowing offering Salah makes us a better person Let's see how Salah develops our personality

DISCIPLINE

We offer Salah 5 times a day & at their right times

This makes us disciplined

People offering regular prayers are definitely more disciplined

CLEANLINESS

For Salah we always clean our face and hands and feet

We learn to remain clean

People offering regular Salah are surely more clean

SELF CONTROL

In Salah we have to control ourself, if we hear jokes we would not laugh, if we hear something annoying we would not react.

This enables us to gain control on ourself. If our Salah is good we would definitely have control on ourself.

PRIORITIZING

When the call for Salah (Azan) comes, we have to leave whatever we do

This teaches us prioritizing tasks

If our Salah is good, we know when to do what

STRENGTH

Some times we are really tired but for Salah we always have strength to make moves

This gives us strength

If we offer Salah we become strong to handle whatever comes ahead

PERFECTION

In Salah we repeat set of actions two, three or four times

Repetition of actions teaches us to attain perfection one after another

If we have learnt from Salah our work must be more perfect and better than others

CONCENTRATION

In Salah we always try to concentrate and listen to what is being read

Salah teaches us to concentrate.

If our Salah is good we can concentrate on things better than others

EQUALITY

Whether be The King or the servants, in Salah all put heads down side by side.

This teaches equality

If our Salah is good we must have respect for everyone as equal humans not as rich or poor

MAKES US RESPONSIBLE

To every Muslim offering Salah is a responsibility.

Salah make us responsible.

If we care for our Salah we start feeling our all other responsibilities and surely become a responsible person

Offering Salah also gives us a lot of health benefits

BUT

We offer SALAH to Please our Allah(swt) and that is the biggest benift
